

Mystery and Adventure Make Reading Fun for Kids

Voices in St. Augustine introduces young readers to the Johnson family which includes two energetic brothers and a sassy little sister. In this first book of the series, thirteen-year-old Joey Johnson becomes intrigued with an abandoned house and the voices he hears coming from its garden. His curiosity leads him on a quest where he learns more than just history about the Nation's Oldest City. He discovers some new things about himself and a mysterious connection he has to the past.

Price: $8.99 140 Pages ISBN: 978-0-9792304-5-5

Adventures on Amelia Island: A Pirate, a Princess, and Buried Treasure continues the escapades of the Johnson family. Five-year-old Katy meets a pirate—but is he real or imagined? Nine-year-old Bobby and his older brother Joey visit an ancient cemetery and a 19th-century fort, as Bobby searches for buried treasure that is rumored to still be hidden on the island. Local legends and tales of ghosts add to a story filled with colorful characters, humorous situations, and a youthful spirit of adventure.

Price: $8.99 132 Pages ISBN: 978-0-9792304-0-0

In Trouble on the St. Johns River, Joey, Bobby, and Katy are back to their adventurous ways. This time, instead of chasing history, they're making it. Joey and Bobby set out to start their summer vacation by going fishing in a local pond, but instead end up leading a crusade to clean up the environment. It's a story of awakening that will inspire kids to become more aware of their environment, and give them some ideas on how to protect and preserve it.

Price: $8.99 157 Pages ISBN: 978-0-9792304-4-8

In Ghosts on the Coast: A Visit to Savannah and the Low Country, the Johnson family travels to Savannah and Charleston—southern cities rich in history and ghost stories. They visit graveyards, a pirate tavern, haunted buildings, and a dungeon. Ending their vacation at the coastal town of Pawleys Island, they learn about sea turtles, blue crabs, and the Gullah culture. When Bobby and his newfound friend get into a dangerous situation, they turn to a local ghost for help. Stories of pirates, ghosts, and feisty women make history come alive for young readers.

Price: $8.99 166 Pages ISBN: 978-0-9792304-6-2

In Lost in Boston the Johnson family is traveling again. This time, they fly to Boston and explore several historic landmarks, including the Paul Revere House, the Old North Church, and the USS Constitution anchored in Boston Harbor. New experiences—like riding a subway for the first time, sampling new foods, and helping solve a crime—add discovery and intrigue to this newest family adventure.

Price: $8.99 144 Pages ISBN: 978-0-9863325-0-0

Author Jane R. Wood uses mystery, adventure, and kids' natural love of animals to capture the imagination of young readers ages 8-14, while at the same time teaching them about the history and environment of five historic areas.

Books may be ordered through www.janewoodbooks.com or www.amazon.com.

Books are also available from
Baker & Taylor
Partners Book Distributing, Inc.

Information about School Visits and Discounts to Schools can be found at www.janewoodbooks.com or call 904-268-9572.